A photographic journey of the coast and inland waterways of Essex. This book contains a broad cross section of the county concentrating mainly on its delightful fretted coastline, estuaries, Blackwater and Chelmer Canal and including some of the gently rolling countryside. It is a pictorial extravagance keeping the narrative to a minimum (apart from the historical inclusions) so that you can cruise through the views and soak up the ambience of the county. Each picture includes a descriptive caption and camera specs. Photographic tips have been lightly dispersed throughout. Historical fact and local factoids have been dispersed throughout. The book is aimed at people interested in Essex photography and facts, walkers/ramblers, education and tourism.
